Introduction

The following is the record layout of the Strategy Pricing File.

This file contains the service/subject/section method names that make up the pricing strategy. This information is used to read the Method Pricing File which contains the Online PCF parameters.

There are two other documents that should be recognized as companions to this document. They are the Pricing Control File (083) from copybook BSPRCPRM, and the Method Pricing File (085) from copybook BSMTHPRC.
